

DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS

Lt Colonel E.V. "Terry" LeFeber,

Is a CAP Life Member, who holds one of the first 400 Cadet Certificates of Proficiency awarded as well as Gill Robb Wilson Award Number 98. He has served as squadron, group, and sector commander as well as Wing Assistant Director of Senior Programs and Inspector General. Col LeFeber holds 16 CAP Master Ratings and is a Master Observer. He has retired following a career in insurance and marketing.

TRANSPORTATION OFFICER

Captain Bruce Hutchinson,

Has been a CAP member since 2000. Since joining, he has served in multiple squadron assignments, including a 3 year tour as commander of the Rochester Composite Squadron. In addition to his wing assignment, he also serves as Finger Lakes Group Supply and Transportation Officer. The captain is employed in the transportation industry and brings a wealth of knowledge to his current position.

SUPPLY OFFICER

Major Gerry Marketos,

Has been in CAP over 30 years and has served as squadron commander and group supply and transportation officer. Major Marketos is a CAP pilot and communicator. A retired physician, he has served as Deputy Police Chief for the City of Utica and currently serves on the Oneida County Airport Board of Commissioners. He also serves as the New York Wing Assistant Government Relations Advisor.

ASSISTANT SUPPLY OFFICER

Captain Paul Zuckerberg,

Joined CAP in 2004. After several squadron assignments, he became Long Island Group Supply and Transportation Officer and has assumed additional duty as Wing Assistant Supply Officer, supporting the New York Wing Headquarters staff and facility at White Plains. A retired Port Authority of New York & New Jersey Police Lieutenant, Captain Zuckerberg is a CAP Observer as well as an FAA Private Pilot, Para-Medic, CPR Instructor, Driver Education Instructor, and volunteer firefighter.